

6516205783.txt

I willingly pay for satellite radio because I feel it provides better service than local, free radio. It's my choice. I find it very convenient to use the new local weather and traffic information, and find it absurd that politics is trying to say this is unfair. Use common sense, don't make rules based on lobbyists' money.